CONFERENCE AT AN END.

Delegates to Copyright Convention Reach an Agreement.

Washington, March 17.—The copyright conference, which has been in progress here for several days and at which about sixty persons representing practically every branch of the publishing interests were present, ended during the evening. Its deliberations have resulted in an agreement as to principles, which those in attendance believe should be incorporated in a new copyright statute.

These will be put into the hands of lawyers to be formulated into a bill, which in turn will be submitted to the various interests for any suggestions and amendments which may be found desirable before the bill is finally introduced into congress. The conference just closed is the third held during the past year. Mr. Herbert Putnam, the librarian of congress, initiated the conference.

New York Lawyer Convicted.

New York, March 17.—H. Huffman Browne, a lawyer, was convicted during the day of forgery in the first degree. It was charged at the trial that he attempted to secure control of the property of a Norwegian, who, with his entire family, was drowned when the steamship Geyser sunk in mid-ocean in 1888. It was charged that Browne created several fictitious heirs.

Salesman Commits Suicide.

St. Paul, March 17.—Paul Lindberg, a traveling salesman for a local fur house, ended his life during the day by shooting himself through the head in his room at the Merchants hotel. He had a wife and children in Nebraska, and it is said he was engaged to marry a St. Paul woman. His domestic difficulties are suposed to have been the motive for his act.

Rockefeller in New Jersey.

New York, March 17.—There can no longer be any question as to the whereabouts of John D. Rockefeller. He is safely ensconced at his fine country home near Lakewood, N. J. The subpoena issued for him by the supreme court of Missouri is not valid in the state of New Jersey and so the Standard Oil millionaire is free to go and come as he pleases so long as he does not pass the state line.

MANY PEOPLE KILLED

AT LEAST A SCORE OF LIVES ARE LOST AS RESULT OF A WRECK IN COLORADO.

SEVERAL PERSONS INJURED

FAILURE OF AN OPERATOR TO DELIVER A MESSAGE RESPONSIBLE FOR WRECK.

Pueblo, Colo., March 17.—Failure by a telegraph operator to deliver a message to the crew of a Denver and Rio Grande passenger train resulted in a head-on collision with another passenger train near Florence, Colo., early in the morning. At least twenty-one lives were lost and twenty-three persons were injured. Many of the corpses were consumed by the fire, which swept the wreck, and it is doubtful if a full list of the casualties will ever be known.

The railroad company has refused to publish a list of the dead. The following, however, have been identified:

William Hollis, engineer, No. 16, Pueblo; Walter Coslett, engineer, No. 3, Pueblo; H. D. Sudduth, fireman, No. 16, Pueblo; Edward E. Baird, deputy sheriff, Denver; Archibald Whitner, prisoner, on way to penitentiary, at Canyon City, in charge of Baird, Denver; Mrs. William Burnside, daughter and daughter's child, all of Kansas, town not learned; A. N. Barklo, Salida, Colo.; Miss Grace Barklo, Salida, Colo.; Enas McParland, express messenger, Denver; Taylor Hewitt, Lebo, Kan.; Mrs. Lilian Hewitt, Lebo, Kan.; Pearl Wewitt, fifteen years of age, Lebo, Kan.; Mrs. Catherine Hewitt and baby boy, Lebo, Kan.; Ed Cowley, Lebo, Kan.; Frederick Jones, Lebo, Kan.; Fred Lemecooley, Denver; Mrs. Ed Cowley, Lebo, Kan.; Mrs. Winona Hewitt, Lebo, Kan..

The injured are: Patrick Murpry, Florence, Colo., seriously; P. Peters, baggageman, Denver; James Proconone, traveling to Florence, Colo., from Italy; Ira Eleod, Gypsum, Colo.; Miss Mabel Fields, address not given, traveling to Wolcott, Colo., serious; E. A. Hewitt, Lebo, Kan.; Miss Mary Gooch, Oakland, Cal.; Thomas Webb, Yampa, Colo.; R. W. Phillips, Caysville, Utah; C. C. House, Champa, N. M.; I. Kissel, New York; A. Gerber, New York; C. N. Wright, New York; James Page, Whitewater, Colo.; F. H. Sweeney, Clinton, Mo.; J. L. Lotton, Bellflower, Mo.; G. C. Clark, Portland, Colo.; J. C. Veale, Denver; J. S. Reef, Leadville, Colo.; B. I. Jones, Denver; A. L. Knous, Ouray, Colo.; L. C. Ramsbottom, San Francisco; W. R. Page, Yampa, Colo.

Fire Followed the Collision.

The wreck was accompanied by horrors only slightly less than those of the Eden disaster, which occurred Aug. 7, 1904, on the same line. The flames followed the collision almost instantly and those who failed to reach the doors or windows at once were deprived of all chance for life. Some were smothered by the first burst of fire following the explosion of the gas tanks on the cars, but many were caught by broken seats and timbers and incinerated by inches.

The trains were the Utah-California express No. 3, westbound from Denver, and the Colorado-New Mexico express No. 16 eastbound from Leadville and Grand Junction. They met on a sharp curve and were less than 200 yards apart when the engineers discovered that a collision was imminent. Walter Coslett, engineer of the westbound train, used every possible means to prevent the crash and went to his death with his hand on the throttle, faithful to his charge. This much is vouched for by his fireman, J. H. Smith, who, seeing the uselessness of remaining, jumped and saved himself. The engine crew of the eastbound train died at their posts.

Conservative estimates on the total loss of life place the number of dead at thirty-five. Rio Grande officials insist that the exact number of persons on the two trains cannot be ascertained; that it is impossible.

S. F. Lively, night operator at Swallows, whose alleged failure to deliver orders to train No. 16 is supposed to have been the cause of the wreck, has been in the employ of the road many years. He has been relieved from duty and will be suspended until the matter is thoroughly investigated by the officials.

In the front end of the ruins of the smoking car of No. 3 were found the charred hands of a man, crossed and held together by a pair of handcuffs. They are all that is left to show that the convict who was being taken to prison was burned in the wreck. Near the ghastly hands were found two revolvers, the property of Deputy Sheriff E. E. Baird of Denver, who was also killed. The prisoner was an actor known as Archibald Whitney, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary for forgery. The bones of his fingers grasped the metal piece of the window casing. Whitney had attempted to climb out of the burning car and might have escaped but for the handcuffs.

SEVERE STORM IN CALIFORNIA.

Greatest Flood in Years Threatened in One Section.

Fresno, Cal., March 17.—A storm of unprecedented severity has been raging for sixty hours and the region between the San Joaquin and Kings rivers is threatened with the greatest flood in years. The fall of snow in the mountains exceeds all records.

Telephone advices from Pine Ridge, which is at the 5,000 foot altitude, says already over twelve feet of snow has fallen and at the summit the depth is said to be over twenty-two feet. Both the Kings and the San Joaquin rivers are above the danger line. The residents of the Garfield vineyards district worked all night in a blinding rain, building levees, but their work went for nothing when a huge wave swept that district. Fancier creek, flowing into canals of the Fresno Irrigation Canal company, is beyond control and is laying waste vineyards.

After a night of terror the 600 people of Paton, on King's river, during the morning moved in a body to the grade of the Santa Fe railway. The levees about the town, which are six feet high, overflowed.

Numerous bridges are being washed out in the northern colonies.

The Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific report numerous washouts and their train service is demoralized.

BANK CASHIER ARRESTED.

Accused of Embezzling Over Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Hazelton, Pa., March 17.—F. N. Everett, cashier of the First National bank, was arrested at night charged with embezzling $56,900. William Beckley, a lawyer of Bloomsburg, was arrested also on the charge of conspiracy. United States Commissioner C. E. Hull committed the accused men for a further hearing, when a national bank examiner will be here.

The bank was closed at 3 o'clock p. m. and according to President Oswald will not be reopened. President Oswald said:

"The bank examiner was at Freeland Wednesday, but the shortage was not discovered until that night, when we found that the balance sheets on our accounts with banks where we have part of our surplus did not tally. Following this Cashier Everett confessed to me."

The bank was organized in 1902 and Everett has been its cashier ever since. It is said that the depositors will be protected.

TELLS OF INDIGNITIES.

Russian Woman Says Police Treated Her in Brutal Manner.

St. Petersburg, March 17.—The case of the daughter of General Izemalovitch, who is under sentence of imprisonment for life, has created a sensation similar to that caused by Mlle. Spiridonovo, the seventeen-year-old girl who smuggled a letter out of her prison describing the manner in which she had been treated. Mlle. Izemalovitch has also succeeded in sending out a letter. It was published during the day and described her treatment after the attempt to kill the governor of Misnk, as a result of which her accomplice, Ivan Kukoloff, was executed. Mlle. Izamalovitch says the police kicked her into insensibility and subsequently at the police station tore off her clothes, subjected her to indignities, beat and cursed her, spat in her face and struck her with such force on the side of her head that an ear drum was broken.

A local paper during the day printed statistics showing that 397 executions occurred in Russia during January.

FOUR PERSONS ARRESTED.

Two of Them Are Uncles of the Wickliffe Boys.

Vinita, I. T., March 17.—Deputy Marshals A. G. Long and Charles Wheat arrived here at night with James Wickliffe and Louis Wickliffe, uncles of the Wickliffe boys, and two fullblood Cherokees, all prisoners.

They left Kansas early in the morning and up to that time no trace of the outlaws had been discovered.

United States Marshal W. A. Darrough has departed for the Spavinaw hills, leaving a posse of a dozen deputies with bloodhounds to go on the trail of the Wickliffes, the Creek outlows. Kansas, I. T., will be reached during the night and in the morning the various squads will take the field. The first effort will be to pick up the trail, which has been lost since the fight on Saline creek.

Twenty Persons Wounded.

Leshno, Russian Poland, March 17.—Members of the new Catholic sect known as the Mariavits during the day deat two orthodox priests who were sent by the bishop to close their church. The orthodox Catholics sided with the priests and a general fight ensued during which twenty persons were wounded.

$5.00 in gold free to a school girl.

Errors frequently appear in our advertisements. Sometimes it is the mistake of the printer and sometimes it is ours as we are not infallible.

We wish to have our advertisements criticized and offer $5.00 in gold to the school girl—in the grades or in the high school—who will find the greatest number of gramatical errors or misspelled words in our advertisements from Monday, March 19th. until April 30th, inclusive. Any advertisement we issue in this paper or otherwise is to be criticized.

All corrections must agree with the Reed & Kellogg text and the form given below must be used in submitting your corrections.

This is a rare opportunity for a school girl to earn $5.00 and at the same time to put her school work to a practical use. As stated before, any young lady attending school may compete for the prize.

Should two or more find the same number of errors, the neatest paper submitted will receive the prize.

March 7—The word there, in the last paragraph should have been spelled their.

Medallioons in the first paragraph was misspelled. It should have been Medallions.

March 14—A semicolon should have followed serviceable in the second part of the advertisement.

Gingham should have been plural in the same section of the advertisement.

FILIBUSTER IN HOUSE

FRIENDS OF GENERALS CORBIN AND MACARTHUR FIGHT BILL AGAINST PROMOTION.

CRITICISES SPEAKER CANNON

CONGRESSMAN SHACKELFORD IS NOT ALLOWED TO FINISH HIS ADDRESS.

Washington, March 17.—Momentarily in the day there was a lapse in the vigilance of those who would prevent legislation taking away the rank of lieutenant general in the army and the chances of Generals Corbin and MacArthur for promotion. Mr. Prince of Illinois, whose bill abolishing the grade is the regular order of business, slipped it into the legislative breach. There was an immediate call to arms and for three hours the friends of the generals filibustered against the bill. The net result was that the previous question was ordered on it and an amendment offered by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, which extends the time of the operation of the bill so as to allow the promotion of the two officers, is pending. On this amendment the house was voting but without a quorum when adjournment was had until Monday, when the vote will be completed. At present it stands 78 ayes and 83 nays.

Previous to this, the first real filibuster of the session, there had been four hours of debate on the legislative bill. Mr. Shackelford opened the programme with a severe criticism of Speaker Cannon, which he was not allowed to finish. Then followed a somewhat lively debate on the appropriation bill.

MINERS ARE ARRAIGNED.

Accused of the Murder of Former Governor Steunenberg of Idaho.

Caldwell, Ida., March 17.—Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone, the officers of the Western Federation of Miners who are charged with the murder of Former Governor Frank Steunenberg, were before District Judge Frank Smith during the day for arraignment. Their attorneys filed a motion to quash and submitted voluminous affidavits alleging conspiracy between Governor Frank R. Gooding and others identified with the prosecution to deprive the defendants of their liberty. These affidavits also allege that A. B. Moss, the foreman of the grand jury, talked with the governor and James H. Hawley, senior counsel for the prosecution, and had expressed opinions prejudicial to the prisoners while the charges were under consideration. Testimony bearing on these affidavits, counter affidavits and arguments will be made before Judge Smith later.

Attorneys for the defendants also petioned the court to admit the accused men to bail.

CLAIM MITCHELL WAS UNFAIR.

Pittsburg Miners Still Support Their Deposed President.

Pittsburg, March 17.—That a split in District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America, will occur, provided Patrick Dolan is compelled to retire from the presidency, seems probable. When many of the miners of this district learned from Indianapolis that the executive board had sanctioned the action of President Mitchell and the district convention in ousting Dolan they stated they would carry out any order issued by Dolan. The miners claim that Mitchell was unfair in declaring the office of the district president vacant and that they will not obey orders sent out by him.

Twenty Persons Injured.

Paris, March 17.—Twenty persons were injured at night by an explosion in a chemical factory in the Rue Vielle du Temple. The damage to the property is estimated at $200,000.

British Steamer Aground.

Atlantic City, N. J., March 17.—The British steamer Cearense, from Para for New York, struck on the shoals near Tom's river lifesaving station early in the day and now lies fast in the sand. The steamer had thirteen passengers in the cabin and twenty-five in the steerage. All were brought safely ashore during the afternoon in the lifeboat of the Tom's river station.

King of Roumania Ill.

London, March 17.—Special dispatches received here report the serious illness of King Charles of Roumania from a brain affection following upon an arterial disease. The Daily Telegraph says that private telegrams have reached London to the effect that the death of the king is possible any moment.

Johann Most Ill.

Cincinnati, March 17.—Herr Johann Most, the well known anarchist, is lying ill at the home of a friend here. The attending physician said Most is suffering from erysipelas, but is not in a serious condition. Herr Most came here Monday from Philadelphia.

PUBLIC HEARINGS CLOSED.

Legislative Committee at Albany Ends Them.

Albany, N. Y., March 17.—The joint special committee of the legislature investigating life insurance during the day formally closed its public hearings on the bills for the amendment of the insurance and other laws.

Chairman Armstrong announced that the committee will receive briefs or other documents until Monday night. A subcommittee will meet in New York next week with Charles E. Hughes, counsel of the committee, when all of the bills will be gone over. The results will be presented to the full committee next week and Chairman Armstrong hopes to get them to the legislature within two weeks.

The battle on the floor of the legislature will be eventful and perhaps sensational.

It may cause an extra session should matters regarded by Governor Higgins as vital, fail of enactment.

Just before adjournment during the day Chairman Armstrong read for the record a telegram from Governor Johnson of Minnesota to Samuel Untermyer of New York, which stated that the insurance conference at Chicago in February favored the legislation proposed by the committee.

A. L. Dickinson of the public accountants' association said he was delegated by a committee representing practically all of the accountants of the United States to appear in opposition to the manner in which statements are required to be filed with the state superintendent of insurance.

Harry D. Williams of Buffalo, representing the assessment insurance interests and the Masonic Life association, called attention to the fact that there is carried today $3,423,412,000 of assessment life insurance by these companies and contended that the proposed legislation meant the wiping out of assessment insurance.

"It is no more fair to say to the assessment companies," he continued, "that because some of them have gone wrong that the others shall be prohibited from doing business than it would be to say that because 75 per cent of the old line companies have not met with your approval, the others shall cease operations."

HAMILTON'S STATEMENT.

Will Not Interfere With Suits Against New York Life Company.

New York, March 17.—Andrew Hamilton's statement before the insurance investigating committee at Albany will not interfere with the suits the New York Life Insurance company proposes to bring against him, according to Augustus F. Payne, a trustee of the company and a member of the Fowler investigating committee. Mr. Payne was for several years an auditor for the New York Life Insurance company, but resigned six years ago. He said during the day he did not see how the company could be held responsible for payments to Hamilton, inasmuch as vouchers were already submitted by the comptroller of the company, and the amounts called for were always regarded as part of the company's legitimate expenses.

FIREMEN MEET DEATH

THREE OF THEM KILLED DURING A BLAZE IN THE ARMORY AT CAMDEN, N. J.

NINE OTHERS BADLY HURT

ROOF OF A BURNING BUILDING FALLS ON MEN FIGHTING THE FLAMES.

Camden, N. J., March 17.—Three firemen were killed and nine others were seriously injured at night at a fire which destroyed the old Sixth regiment armory at Bridge and West streets in this city. The dead are:

George W. Shields, William Hillman and William Jobes.

The injured are: Charles Wortheington, probably fatally; Seth Monell, William Simpson, William Elevrson, Josiah Sage, James Elberson, Harry Dease, Martin Corrigan and George Quinn.

The fire started in the boilerroom and quickly spread to all parts of the structure. About a dozen firemen were ordered into the burning building with a line of hose and were making good progress in fighting the flames when the roof fell on them. Shields, Hillman and Jobes were crushed to death. The others managed to follow the line of the hose and escaped from the building after most of them had been seriously lacerated and burned.

A general alarm was sounded and after a great effort the flames were confined to the armory, which was entirely destroyed. Worthington was hurt while going to the fire when the apparatus on which he was riding crashed into an electric light pole.

NEARLY WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Business Section of White Pigeon, Mich., Visited by a Bad Blaze.

White Pigeon, Mich., March 17.—The business section of this village was nearly wiped out during the day by a fire which started in the furniture store of Alfred Wicket. The blaze is supposed to have started from an overheated stove in a furniture store. Only seven store buildings now remain. The fire destroyed two saloons, the postoffice and barber shop, the Farmers' Savings bank, two dry goods stores, a confectionery store, two drugstores and the office of Dr. J. R. Williams. The total loss will probably not exceed $25,000.

BASIS OF AN AGREEMENT.

May Be Reached by Germany and France Over Morocco.

Alegciras, March 17.—Postponement of the plenary conference on Moroccan reforms until March 20 arouses among the delegates hopes that Germany and France meantime will reach a basis of accord. The symptoms of agreement were more favorable during the day, when the representatives of neutral nations energetically endeavored to influence mutual concessions. The French and Spanish delegates, however, still claim that their acceptance of the principle of inspection of France-Spanish police gives guarantee that the interests of the powers will be properly safeguarded. They are disinclined to agree that the inspector to be appointed shall have anything in the nature of a command, which the Germans hitherto regarded as essential. Both sides now appear to be less uncompromising.

It is the opinion of influential delegates, including the Americans and Italians, that an agreement is attainable. They argue that the conference would not have been called unless the principal parties concerned had foreseen the probability of a successful issue, and therefore they will strive to blend the rival propositions into unison before the next meeting, when, they hope, the vital question will be satisfactorily settled.

To Study Situation in China.

Washington, March 17.—A movement has been instituted by Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois, for the appointment of an educational commission for the study of the social, intellectual and industrial situation in China with a view to the regeneration of the Chinese empire.

Two Killed by Dynamite.

Billings, Mont., March 17.—After placing several sticks of dynamite on an old scraper Thomas Brown and D. T. Fowler built a fire under the iron shell, with the result that they were killed by the explosion of the dynamite at Roundup, sixty miles north of Billings.

British Sailor Killed.

Genoa, March 17.—A sailor belonging to the British battleship Bulwark was killed during the day by stabbing after a quarrel in a barroom with several foreigners, including members of Buffalo Bill's Wild West company. One of the latter, called Davis, was arrested.

Many Delegates Present.

Beloit, Wis., March 17.—The thirty-first annual state convention of the Y. W. C. A. convened here during the day with 300 delegates present. It is expected that a building for the Beloit association will be one of the results of the meeting.

WEST SIDE HOME RAZED TO GROUND

Home of John Gaffey on West Side of River Gutted by Fire This Morning

LOSS WILL BE ABOUT $12000

Department Helpless to Render Any Assistance in Saving The Property

This morning about 10 o'clock the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaffey in West Brainerd was destroyed by fire, and little if any of the household effects were saved.

The origin of the fire is not known, but it seems to have gotten a good start before the department arrived, and even if it had arrived sooner it would have been impossible to do much on account of the fact that there is no water supply there.

The house was owned by J. T. Spencer and he figures that his loss will approximate $700. He had but $300 insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Gaffey state that their loss will be $500 and they had but $250 insurance. The house and all its contents were almost completely destroyed.

BASIS FOR REPRESENTATION

Secretary C. H. Warner Figures Out Fair Basis for Representation at the State Republican Convention

Secretary C. H. Warner, of the republican state committee has figured out the number of delegates each county will be entitled to in the convention this year, if the average vote for candidates on the state ticket is taken as the basis. The total, giving the counties five at large and one for each 250 votes or major fraction, would be 1,089. The total two years ago, based on the McKinley vote of 1900, was 1,167. If based on the Roosevelt vote the convention would have 1,285 delegates, and based on the Dunn vote alone it would have 975.

The average vote scheme will give Crow Wing county 12 delegates.

"LEMONADE BILL" CONVICTED

Well Known Character who was First Arrested by Chief Simmons Here Convicted at Little Falls

Judge Searle of the district court of Little Falls yesterday sentenced Jesse Neal, alias "Lemonade Bill," who was convicted of robbing a store at Pierz last September, to a term of six years at hard labor in the state penitentiary at Stillwater.

The eccentric character and actions of the accused man drew large crowds to witness the trial. The evidence against Neal was plain and conclusive. At the recent special term of court his attorney entered a plea of guilty in his behalf, whereupon the prisoner rose and denied emphatically any connection with the crime, ending with an impassioned diatribe against the public, newspapers and police of Little Falls. His trial was then set for the present term, and resulted in conviction.

Neal was arrested by Chief Simmons here upon information and it is thought he had something to do with the robberies committed in this vicinity.

Needle Work Prize Winners

The H. F. Michael Co. have a window in their Front street store which is attracting much attention today. A showing is being made of the pieces completed by the young ladies who have attended their art needlework classes. Some time ago they offered a prize for the best piece of work to be completed by a member of the class. Jessie Jones, a seven year old girl carried away the first prize. It was a scrim pillow in a very difficult design, which is worked in almost a perfect manner. Mable Kronberg, Susie Pfeiffer, Gladys Nitterauer and Eleanor Hass completed pieces which would be a credit to those of much more mature years. The stitches are even, the shadings good and the color schemes very attractive. There are about fifteen other pieces displayed in the window and every one is remarkably well done.

JOHNSON BROS. BUY THE BAKERY

A. Frolick Closed Deal Today For Sale of well Known Front Street Bakery

WELL KNOWN BUSINESS MEN

Swan Johnson was Formerly a Resident Here and is Very Well Known

A deal was consummated this morning whereby A. Frolick transfers his bakery store on Front street to Johnson Bros., and they will take charge in a few days. Mr. Frolick came to Brainerd a few months ago and bought the bakery from W. J. Weddell, who went on the road.

The Johnson Bros. are thoroughly up-to-date bakers and confectioners, young and energetic and they are sure to succeed here. Swan Johnson was formerly a resident here and worked for years for D. Mahoney. The brothers afterward engaged in business in River Falls, Wis., and later they went to Tracy, Minn., where they have conducted a bakery for a long time. They will make many improvements in the Front street bakery and expect to have a place second to none in Northern Minnesota.

SIGNALS WERE MISUNDERSTOOD.

Otherwise Crew of British King Could Have Been Saved.

New York, March 16.—An account of how the steamer British King was followed the day before she sank by the steamer Mannheim vainly fluttering signals, which if they had not been mistaken by the British King would have saved the lives which were lost last Sunday, was given by Captain Andrew Schau, when the Mannheim reached here during the day.

This steamer brought eleven survivors of the lost ship. Captain Schu said that twenty-four hours before the disaster he sighted the foundering steamer and signalled her captain to stop his engines in order that boats from the Mannheim might overtake her and rescue the crew. But the tempest which later sent the ship to the bottom seemed to have conspired against the British King. Through the masses of spray and the great waves the signal, which was sent "stop," was read "stop on board." Had the British King's engines been stopped then, Captain Schau said his boats could have saved the crew.

NANCE O'NEIL

Nance O'Neil the American tragedienne, is doing a remarkable business on the Pacific coast. In Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Victoria, Vancouver and Spokane, the theatres in which she has played have been taxed to their capacity, though the distinguished actress followed close to the English Opera Co. of Henry Savage, which also did a record-breaking business. Nance O'Neil is to appear in this city at the opera house on Monday evening, March 19, in her greatest success, the Sudermann problem play, "Fires of St. John." Of this performance the press of San Francisco, Cal., recently said:

The Examiner—"We are in her debt for an earnest, competent characterization of a great part."

The Call—"A rare and notable piece of work."

The Chronicle—"The best she has given us in modern roles."

"THE ISLE OF SPICE."

Music that makes the listener mark time, attractive costumes, a chorus of pretty girls and lines which have not been overlooked in comic supplements, pleased the audience immensely at the Alvin last night. The matrimonial ventures of the much-married King of Nicobar furnished an excuse for some kind of plot. The kindly sayings of Charles A. Pusey had a liberal local color, including his definition of "reform" as a word used in Pittsburg before the last election and since then returned to the dictionary. Jack Collins and W. J. McGraw were comical in new ways as deserters from the U. S. S. Roosevelt. Bert Wainwright looked the dashing naval officer and dressed the part. Ethel Tilson was a very pleasing king's ward.—Pittsburg Dispatch, Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 23.

GOING BACK TO COLORADO.

Vincent St. John Being Taken to That State From Idaho.

Boise, Ida., March 16.—Vincent St. John, who was arrested at Burke, Ida., on the charge of complicity in the murder of Former Governor Steunenberg, is on his way to Colorado in custody of Sheriff Rutan and Deputy Sheriff Meldrum of Montrose county, that state. The Idaho charges were dismissed by a justice of the peace at a special session of the court, and the county officers arrested St. John on the extradition warrant issued by Governor Gooding. Sheriff Nichols at once turned him over to the Colorado officers, who left at 4:40 o'clock in the evening. The charge on which extradition was granted is that of murder during the labor troubles in Colorado, when St. John was president of the miners' union at Telluride.

Harry Orchard, who is alleged to have confessed that he killed Steunenberg, was arraigned at 2 o'clock. He refused to plead so the judge ordered a plea of not guilty entered.

CITY OF GOD A REALITY

Opinion of New York Preacher Regarding Heaven.

MAY SOON BE LOCATED BY SCIENCE

Rev. William Coburn Believes That Astronomers Will Show to the Earth's Inhabitants Jehovah's Throne, Around Which All Other Planets Revolve—Wonderful Estimate of City's Size.

In his sermon to a large congregation at the First Baptist church of Macon, Mo., the other morning the Rev. William Coburn of New York, an evangelist, took the position that "The City of God," or the New Jerusalem, was as material and as real a city as London, New York or Kansas City and expressed himself as being confident that it would yet be located by astronomers and men of science and could be seen by the inhabitants of earth before death, says a Macon dispatch to the Kansas City Times.

The text was, "Wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he hath prepared for them a city."—Heb. xi, 16. Mr. Coburn said in part:

"We know that our globe was at one time a part of the sun. The inclination of the axis and the constituent parts as shown by spectrum analysis make this almost certain. Thrown off in a gaseous form, it gradually cooled down as the ages rolled until it became this solid earth upon which man now lives.

"It is impossible to conceive the spirit taking up the various relations of life in the world without a body and a sphere of activity for that body. The logic that requires a body and a world here demands a body and a world beyond the grave.

"It was a supreme moment in the history of the race when Galileo placed his eye to the telescope, with its newly discovered powers. Up to that time the universe had been earth centered. The sun, the moon and the stars all revolved around it. But Galileo found that instead of our earth being the center of the great unmeasured universe it was one of the smallest bodies of the solar system and that it, together with others much larger, revolved around the sun, which, with other systems like our own, was revolving around another and a larger and a more central sun.

"This led to the sublime question, which was presented at a meeting of famous astronomers, 'What is the center of it all?' An impressive silence fell upon the assembly of students. Then the question was replied to in this language by a man who stands at the very head of astronomical thought and discovery: 'I know not what others may think, but it seems to me it must be the throne of the great Jehovah!'

"If you tell me where this great sun is about which all other suns and stars and worlds revolve, I will tell you where God's city is, for the throne is in the midst of the city, and the hour may be near at hand when astronomy will be able to exactly locate, out amid the brilliant constellations yonder, the very spot, the center of the universe of God! There are those who are studying to that end right now, and they feel the wondrous enthusiasm which is born of the thought that they are approaching nearer and nearer the hour and the place.

"The city of God is a place so vast that it bewilders all attempts at computation. One great mathematician devoted a full two years to the development of the measurements that were given John in the Revelation. His deduction was that if the race was to continue on earth 5,000 years longer and to increase at the normal pro rata there would be space for a five room house, each room fifteen feet square and fifteen feet high, for every member of the race and that this would only take up one-third of the area of that great city! Another third would remain for boulevards and beauty spots. Another third would be for the palace and the throne of the King of kings.

"But there will be some things lacking in this great city of God. The city, however, will be the gainer for it. There will be no cemeteries, with their beautiful flowers and foliage. There will be no physicians, no undertakers, no drug stores. No somber hearses will glide down the golden streets of the new Jerusalem, for there will be no death there and no night."

PUCKERLESS PERSIMMONS.

New Japan-American Product Beats Old Style Face Twisters.

Persimmons without a pucker are now being grown by the department of agriculture, says a Washington special dispatch to the Philadelphia Press. Owing to the chemical composition of the old fashioned persimmon, which caused the lips to pucker after eating this fruit, the sales have been anything but gratifying to the farmers.

In order to remedy this defect the department of agriculture imported some Japanese persimmons and crossed them with the American product. A finer specimen has been produced, and in the near future the department will begin the distribution of persimmon trees which will produce fruit guaranteed not to pucker the lips.

Society Stunts In Oklahoma.

It is reported that a number of Oklahoma City young women have perfected an organization for the purpose of giving a circus early in the spring, says the Oklahoma Times-Journal. The organization meets every Saturday night, and the members are getting along nicely with their acrobatic stunts.

OPENING OF SPRING TRADE.

Delayed by the Widespread Winter Storm.

New York, March 17.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says the widespread storm has delayed the opening of spring trade at retail, causing some complaint of bad roads and interruption to personal buying at leading jobbing centers. On the other hand, the benefits of accompanying heavy snows or rains to the crops probably far outweigh the damage due to this cause or injury caused to small fruit and truck interests by the freezing weather. Wholesale trade and industry show no signs of hesitation and even the building trades have given little heed to the temporary weather setback in view of the immense business for spring and summer offering. The coal strike situation is still a flaw in the situation but signs of conflict between localized sections and a general suspension of all work is scouted. Jobbing trade at leading centers is large and reorders for spring delivery are already reported at Western centers. Railway earnings for February and the first half of March break all records for this season; collections are classed as fair to good, export trade is of a large midwinter volume and there are signs that lowered prices of cereals have found response in improved foreign buying.

Refused a New Trial.

Dayton, O., March 17.—Dr. Oliver Crooke Haugh, convicted of murder in the first degree, was refused a new trial by Judge Brown of the common pleas court during the afternoon. Haugh is charged with murdering his mother, father and brother with a deadly drug and then burning their bodies up in their own home. Sentence has not been passed as yet, but it is not thought a higher court will be appealed to.

Woman Sentenced to Be Hanged.

Saratoff, Russia, March 17.—The woman who assassinated Lieutenant General Sakharoff, former minister of war, on Dec. 5, 1905, was during the day sentenced to be hanged. The verdict was accompanied with a recommendation that the sentence be commuted to life servitude.

Fear Renewal of Strikes.

Moscow, March 17.—There is continued fear here of a renewal of strikes. Radical elements have changed their tactics and ceasing to advocate armed resistance, they have decided to participate in the elections.

CANNON'S RUINED APPLE.

How the Speaker of the House Lost His Favorite Fruit.

A catastrophe of which Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was both the cause and the victim marked the adjournment of the house the other day, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Times. All day there lay on the marble top of Uncle Joe's desk a big, shiny red apple that brought the water to the mouth of every man who looked at it.

Occasionally Uncle Joe stroked it caressingly with one hand, while with the other he toyed with the heavy headed ivory gavel. At times, when the exigencies of his duty required him to maul his desk with the gavel, he thoughtfully thumped a spot at the other end, far removed from the precious apple. Not once all the afternoon was the luscious fruit in danger.

Then came the finish of business, and Sereno Payne, floor leader of the Republicans, was on his feet to make a motion to adjourn. Some one else started toward the speaker's desk to get recognition. Just as he got within range Uncle Joe, growing a little weary of wielding the heavy gavel with his right hand, shifted it to his left and for one fateful instant forgot the apple.

Down came the ivory head with a smash fair on that devoted apple. There was a doleful crunch, a gasp from the house, and little jets of apple juice were flying from the desk in all directions.

"Shucks!" said Uncle Joe, as he surveyed sadly the ruins of his apple.

And then the house adjourned.

CRUSH THE SOKOTO REVOLT.

British Troops Kill Over Three Hundred Rebels in Nigeria.

London, March 16.—A dispatch from Zungeru, Northern Nigeria, to the Daily Mail reports that the British punitive expedition has crushed the Sokoto revolt after heavy fighting in which the rebels twice charged the British squares and were almost annihilated. The town of Satirk, which was held by the rebels in force, was bombarded and then captured at the point of the bayonet. Over 300 rebels were killed.

The expedition was sent out from Zungeru following the defeat of a British force on Feb. 14 by natives supposed to be followers of a new Mahdi. Of the British force defeated, 3 officers and 25 natives were killed.

GOING BACK TO COLORADO.

Vincent St. John Being Taken to That State From Idaho.

Boise, Ida., March 16.—Vincent St. John, who was arrested at Burke, Ida., on the charge of complicity in the murder of Former Governor Steunenberg, is on his way to Colorado in custody of Sheriff Rutan and Deputy Sheriff Meldrum of Montrose county, that state. The Idaho charges were dismissed by a justice of the peace at a special session of the court, and the county officers arrested St. John on the extradition warrant issued by Governor Gooding. Sheriff Nichols at once turned him over to the Colorado officers, who left at 4:40 o'clock in the evening. The charge on which extradition was granted is that of murder during the labor troubles in Colorado, when St. John was president of the miners' union at Telluride.

Harry Orchard, who is alleged to have confessed that he killed Steunenberg, was arraigned at 2 o'clock. He refused to plead so the judge ordered a plea of not guilty entered.

CITY OF GOD A REALITY

Opinion of New York Preacher Regarding Heaven.

MAY SOON BE LOCATED BY SCIENCE

Rev. William Coburn Believes That Astronomers Will Show to the Earth's Inhabitants Jehovah's Throne, Around Which All Other Planets Revolve—Wonderful Estimate of City's Size.

In his sermon to a large congregation at the First Baptist church of Macon, Mo., the other morning the Rev. William Coburn of New York, an evangelist, took the position that "The City of God," or the New Jerusalem, was as material and as real a city as London, New York or Kansas City and expressed himself as being confident that it would yet be located by astronomers and men of science and could be seen by the inhabitants of earth before death, says a Macon dispatch to the Kansas City Times.

The text was, "Wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he hath prepared for them a city."—Heb. xi, 16. Mr. Coburn said in part:

"We know that our globe was at one time a part of the sun. The inclination of the axis and the constituent parts as shown by spectrum analysis make this almost certain. Thrown off in a gaseous form, it gradually cooled down as the ages rolled until it became this solid earth upon which man now lives.

"It is impossible to conceive the spirit taking up the various relations of life in the world without a body and a sphere of activity for that body. The logic that requires a body and a world here demands a body and a world beyond the grave.

"It was a supreme moment in the history of the race when Galileo placed his eye to the telescope, with its newly discovered powers. Up to that time the universe had been earth centered. The sun, the moon and the stars all revolved around it. But Galileo found that instead of our earth being the center of the great unmeasured universe it was one of the smallest bodies of the solar system and that it, together with others much larger, revolved around the sun, which, with other systems like our own, was revolving around another and a larger and a more central sun.

"This led to the sublime question, which was presented at a meeting of famous astronomers, 'What is the center of it all?' An impressive silence fell upon the assembly of students. Then the question was replied to in this language by a man who stands at the very head of astronomical thought and discovery: 'I know not what others may think, but it seems to me it must be the throne of the great Jehovah!'

"If you tell me where this great sun is about which all other suns and stars and worlds revolve, I will tell you where God's city is, for the throne is in the midst of the city, and the hour may be near at hand when astronomy will be able to exactly locate, out amid the brilliant constellations yonder, the very spot, the center of the universe of God! There are those who are studying to that end right now, and they feel the wondrous enthusiasm which is born of the thought that they are approaching nearer and nearer the hour and the place.

"The city of God is a place so vast that it bewilders all attempts at computation. One great mathematician devoted a full two years to the development of the measurements that were given John in the Revelation. His deduction was that if the race was to continue on earth 5,000 years longer and to increase at the normal pro rata there would be space for a five room house, each room fifteen feet square and fifteen feet high, for every member of the race and that this would only take up one-third of the area of that great city! Another third would remain for boulevards and beauty spots. Another third would be for the palace and the throne of the King of kings.

"But there will be some things lacking in this great city of God. The city, however, will be the gainer for it. There will be no cemeteries, with their beautiful flowers and foliage. There will be no physicians, no undertakers, no drug stores. No somber hearses will glide down the golden streets of the new Jerusalem, for there will be no death there and no night."

PUCKERLESS PERSIMMONS.

New Japan-American Product Beats Old Style Face Twisters.

Persimmons without a pucker are now being grown by the department of agriculture, says a Washington special dispatch to the Philadelphia Press. Owing to the chemical composition of the old fashioned persimmon, which caused the lips to pucker after eating this fruit, the sales have been anything but gratifying to the farmers.

In order to remedy this defect the department of agriculture imported some Japanese persimmons and crossed them with the American product. A finer specimen has been produced, and in the near future the department will begin the distribution of persimmon trees which will produce fruit guaranteed not to pucker the lips.

Society Stunts In Oklahoma.

It is reported that a number of Oklahoma City young women have perfected an organization for the purpose of giving a circus early in the spring, says the Oklahoma Times-Journal. The organization meets every Saturday night, and the members are getting along nicely with their acrobatic stunts.

OPENING OF SPRING TRADE.

Delayed by the Widespread Winter Storm.

New York, March 17.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says the widespread storm has delayed the opening of spring trade at retail, causing some complaint of bad roads and interruption to personal buying at leading jobbing centers. On the other hand, the benefits of accompanying heavy snows or rains to the crops probably far outweigh the damage due to this cause or injury caused to small fruit and truck interests by the freezing weather. Wholesale trade and industry show no signs of hesitation and even the building trades have given little heed to the temporary weather setback in view of the immense business for spring and summer offering. The coal strike situation is still a flaw in the situation but signs of conflict between localized sections and a general suspension of all work is scouted. Jobbing trade at leading centers is large and reorders for spring delivery are already reported at Western centers. Railway earnings for February and the first half of March break all records for this season; collections are classed as fair to good, export trade is of a large midwinter volume and there are signs that lowered prices of cereals have found response in improved foreign buying.

Refused a New Trial.

Dayton, O., March 17.—Dr. Oliver Crooke Haugh, convicted of murder in the first degree, was refused a new trial by Judge Brown of the common pleas court during the afternoon. Haugh is charged with murdering his mother, father and brother with a deadly drug and then burning their bodies up in their own home. Sentence has not been passed as yet, but it is not thought a higher court will be appealed to.

Woman Sentenced to Be Hanged.

Saratoff, Russia, March 17.—The woman who assassinated Lieutenant General Sakharoff, former minister of war, on Dec. 5, 1905, was during the day sentenced to be hanged. The verdict was accompanied with a recommendation that the sentence be commuted to life servitude.

Fear Renewal of Strikes.

Moscow, March 17.—There is continued fear here of a renewal of strikes. Radical elements have changed their tactics and ceasing to advocate armed resistance, they have decided to participate in the elections.
